Re: HRD Network Brown Bag Lunch

December 10, 2010

The HRD Network provided another valuable opportunity for the many credit unions that are members of their organization for training and networking on December 3, 2010 at the local Los Angeles Brown Bag Lunch session. As HRD Networks preferred vendor for unemployment cost control, UC Advantage presented important information for credit unions to save valuable time and money. Highlighted in UC Advantage's training were best practices related to progressive discipline, payroll tax benefits of UI claims administration, hearing representation, documentation, and other costly unemployment pitfalls.
