

Premium Unemployment Cost Control Services

888-276-7750 ucadvantage.net

Why it is important to have representation in unemployment proceedings that deal with the issue of whether the claimant is an employee or independent contractor?

A claim like this not only affects the unemployment benefits of a claimant, but if mishandled, can be a determining factor in future misclassification challenges and trials. At UC Advantage, our claims analysts are uniquely trained to walk you through this process. Please contact your UC Advantage Account Manager for strategies and assistance in dealing with this particular type of claim.

Please see Independent Contractor Misclassification Liability: A Single Claim by One Worker Can Lead to Disastrous Results. (A post by the Independent Contractor Compliance and Misclassification Legal Blog).

